

Past Leaders

---

Uriella Ozdoba graduated with a B.Sc. from Jerusalem University while Hazel Baker graduates this year with a B.A. from the same University.

Victor Benatar is at present nearing the completion of his army career in Israel whilst Ronnie Price has already completed his army service and is at present studying hotel management at Ladmar.

Douglas Cowan recently obtained his wings in the Israeli Air Force.

Marc Capeluto is at present a 2nd year L.I.B. student at UCR. He was an American Field Scholarship student and is the current chairman of the Rhodesian Zionist Youth Council.

Jacques Capeluto, past Segan Mefaqued Maoz of Salisbury Betar has recently graduated with an honours degree from Cambridge University.

Harold Lubitz, a final year Business Science student at University of Cape Town is playing squash for the South African Combined Universities team.

Robbie Amato is at present working in Johannesburg and is in charge of Aliyah in South African Betar. Robbie was general secretary (Maskir Klait) of South African Betar in 1970.

Graduated from the University of Cape Town, Michael Cohen is now teaching at Herzliah School in Cape Town.

It is hoped that this short list will indicate that many fine men and women have passed through the ranks of Salisbury Betar.

Sam Leon

Ritchie Codron

Sam Leon and Ritchie Codron have respectively had the distinction of holding the post of Mefaqued Maoz for 2 consecutive years.