

Bnei Etzel

Morris Hanan

Morris Hanan leads Bnei Etzel. He is 18 years old and is doing 'A' level Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Biology and Use of English at Prince Edward Boys High School. He plans to study medicine and then go on Aliyah. Morris will be Mefaqued Maoz in January 1972 and takes over as Segan from Sam Halfon in September 1971.

Jackie Galaun, 18 year old Bnei Etzel Madricha, attends Queen Elizabeth School. This year she writes English, Use of English, History and French at Advanced level. She has participated in the Machon Hachoref Course in Israel. Next year she plans to study at Jerusalem's Hebrew University for a general B.A. degree.

Jackie Galaun

One of the most promising Shichavot of the Maoz, this group directly represents the leadership of tomorrow.

Though more novel and stimulating Tochniot have been known, the group's personal involvement raised this year's course to a mature level. The Machlechet Hadracha did well in stressing Betariut this year, and this served to consolidate the group's somewhat wishy-washy grounding in the absolute essentials of Betar.

The Madrichim have however used their discretion in supplementing the Tochniot with more up to date and topical subjects. The purpose remains to enrich the group's Betarian Knowledge by placing it in perspective with the rest of the world. A critical analysis of David Lytton's "Goddam Whiteman" revealed minds that were both mature and alert to today's burning issues.

Socially this eighteen to twenty-four strong group is fairly self-sufficient. Friday night Chuggim turnouts are good, with a happy choice of guest speakers.

A Va-ad, elected by the group, arranges all functions like going to "flicks" and holding cheese and wine parties. Madrichim are much pleased by the number of new members to Bnei Etzel. These have satisfactorily replaced those who have graduated to Shevei Zion.
